

Please read the following information prior to applying for a week at Middle Eggbear.

The property, Middle Eggbear, was conveyed in trust “for the free holidays for ministers of religion and missionaries and their families of any colour and of any Christian creed or denomination”.

The essence of the site is its peace and quiet; which is conducive to the restoration and recreation of the visitors to the lodges. We ask our guests to respect this.

We would ask applicants to respect the fact that we are a charity and we strive to help those applicants who, for whatever reason, do not have the luxury of taking a wide variety of regular holidays.

In order to provide holidays for as many guests as possible, the Trustees discourage return to Middle Eggbear on consecutive years. If you came on holiday with us last year, please allow someone else to use the Lodges this year. We also try to reserve school holidays and half terms for those with children.

It is the responsibility of each applicant to provide a truthful account of his or her eligibility for receiving this week’s free holiday at Middle Eggbear.

Without this written account the application will not be processed.

Even if you have holidayed with us in the past we would ask you to complete this application form again, as circumstances can change over time. Retired clergy and missionaries are, of course, entitled to a week’s free holiday at Middle Eggbear. We would ask, however, that verifiable information about previous responsibilities be provided on the application form.

Data Protection

The Eggbear Trust CIO will use the information below to assess if you qualify for a free holiday in one of our Lodges. Full details of our approach regarding confidentiality and data security can be found in our Privacy Policy available from our website.
